It's a complex and powerful game with tons of capability and tools to create your own park, and live the nostalgia of Roller Coaster Tycoon 3.
It would be a lot better if we could actually play it as its fullest. But sadly, the game becomes unplayable as your park grow. Up to a point where its impossible to keep a steady 10fps even with modern high ends PCs, its a known fact, just google it and you'll see. I've tried to play it so many times hopping I was doing something wrong, but always ended the same way, unplayable as the park reaches a certain amount of visitants.
Long story short, I wouldn't recommend it solely by the fact the you cant really go deep and use all the great potential available. Sad. For anyone who has not played MCC this game can be hard to understand at first.. i find this game very fun to play since i have many hours in MCC.
yes it needs a litte work on the tutorial system ..
all in all i give this a 7.5\/10. Really addictive game, if you have a group of friends this is fun af.. The good: I love party games. Chalo Chalo is a great party game. Had a blast playing it for about half an hour on a friend\u2019s machine with a group of seven people at various levels of intoxication. The game was everything that was advertised. Easy to pick up, everyone could get the controller app, and connect in under 5 minutes.

The bad: We had a few issues with disconnects mid-game and players' dots would just wander off the screen. Also, I get that the devs are probably going for some aesthetic with the pastels for each player\u2019s dot, but half the players had a hard time picking out their dot.

The unacceptable: One of our players was colorblind. The player couldn't tell the difference between the fast (green) and the death (red) tiles. Considering that around 1 in 20 people are colorblind and the game is made for 8 players, the likelihood that someone at your party is colorblind is fairly high. It is completely unacceptable that there is no colorblind palette option.

Add a colorblind mode. Add a mode with more distinct colors for the dots.

TL;DR: Chalo Chalo is a fun party game. It needs a colorblind mode or you won\u2019t be able to play it at parties.
. Very disppointing. Dated graphics, poorly implemented dialog system, simplistic combat, over simplified world map. The main reason I didn't get very far in the game is that it was just too dull.. Short but great! Try it out!. I just played Turba for 15 minutes, to get the Summer achievement that was added to it.

Afterward when I got up from my chair, I stubbed my toe very hard, fell and bashed my arm on a bookcase as I tried to catch my fall, scraped my leg rather painfully, and finally broke my fall by smashing my hand against the sharp corner of a wooden box. My arm hurts, my leg hurts, my hand hurts, and my toe is bleeding a bit. I also seem to have punched myself in the stomach or something on the way down, I'm not even sure on that, but it hurts there too.

Still, if I had no choice but to repeat one of those two experiences, I would not choose Turba.. i like this game because its calming.... in a way but its stress-full too.
it's a game about flowers... grow them as much as you cang and get the fruit before the autumm comes.

i give it a 9/10 its little bit short i mean only three flowers/fruits. hope they add more in the future.. It's like a old school bejeweled game with a pirate theme its a fun game.

Great DLC! lots of engines to drive! I absolutely love this add-on alot, great companion with Pack 1 or other SD70s in your game. One nice feature is the CN unit has working marker lights. A few scenarios are included as well has a hopper car. Sounds are the same but I replaced those already and it is a good DLC to have.. Not enough options. Might as well be a babies toy.. A Disney movie for big boys and girls.

Fantastic story, great characters, typical Telltale [rip] goodness.

8\/10 for sure. 10\/10 made me shoot up my school. i get motion sickness but its a huge rush i love it thanks for mking this .. That Turkey !! That Turkey !! Never tired !!
